Frequently Asked Questions & Policies

www.cdt-dance.org

513-591-1222

What are the session dates?

Session dates are posted on our website at www.cdt-dance.org. Dates will also be listed on registration sheets, class schedules and brochures, which are located in the lobby/waiting area, both upstairs and downstairs. Ask at the front desk if we are out of class schedules.

What are the fees for the classes?

Fees may vary per quarter based on the number of weeks. See the website and current brochures for prices. There will be deadlines each quarter for registration and there is limited amount of space in classes.

If capacity is reached in a class, names will be placed on a list and a second class may be offered. A class may be cancelled if less than four students are registered by the deadline. Additional fees may be added for a payment made after the deadline; check the brochure and website for details.

There are no drop-in prices. Please do not bring a friend or relative to drop-in and take a class. All students must be registered for a session before arriving at their first class.

Please note: During certain quarters if there is space in a class after the first week, new students might be permitted to join, at the discretion of the instructor and CDT.

Please call CDT, check at the front desk, or email alissa@cdt-dance.org to inquire.

What time will the class meet?

Please check our website or current brochures and class schedules for up-to-date schedules.

Will make-up classes be offered?

Make up classes are only offered if the teacher or studio cancels a class (i.e. due to inclement weather). The instructor and/or CDT will attempt to give you as much notice as possible if a class is cancelled (will call and/or email you). Closures due to the weather will be posted on our Facebook page for dance classes, usually after noon for weekday classes. "Like" us on Facebook "Contemporary Dance Theater Classes".

What is the Dress Code?

We recommend that your child wear comfortable clothes. There is no specific dress code.

For Ms. Allison's classes:

Leotards and footless tights are encouraged, but not required. Jeans are not permitted to be worn. Ballet slippers are optional. We encourage you to purchase ballet slippers at a dance supply store or at Payless as these stores will be able to fit your child properly. We do not recommend that you purchase ballet slippers at Target, Wal-Mart or similar stores. Often times the shoes they have displayed as ballet slippers are actually house slippers/dress up shoes and they are not safe to wear during class. Socks are also generally too slippery and unsafe.

For Kids Breakdancing & Hip Hop: We recommend that students wear athletic shoes or dance sneakers and comfortable clothes that are easy to move in. Knee pads are optional for Breakdancing.

May the parent/guardian leave the building during dance class?

If your child is in Shake and Create or Introduction to Dance (younger children), a parent/guardian must stay in the upstairs lobby during class (just outside the classroom door) in case your child needs to use the restroom downstairs. Your child's safety is our number one priority and we feel that one way we can ensure this is to have parents/guardians easily accessible. It is helpful to have a parent/guardian available should a child need a hug, a nose wiped, or a bathroom break.

For Kids Breakdancing & Hip Hop a parent/guardian should stay in the parlor/first floor area during class, to be easily accessible by the instructor during class time, if needed. Please do not sit in the back of the room, as it is often distracting to the students and the instructor.

What should my child bring to dance class?

Your child should bring a water bottle with their name on it and the appropriate footwear for the class (ballet shoes, athletic shoes, etc.) Please do not bring personal items like toys or cell phones. These items are distracting during dance class and the studio is not responsible for lost items. If a student needs to use the phone they may use the studio phone at the front desk.

May parents/guardians and/or other relatives, siblings or friends watch the class?

No, as we feel it is very distracting for the students to have the parents and other people in the room and the door open during dance class. However, we offer Family/Friend dance classes in which we invite everyone to observe and/or join in on the dance class. This is the perfect opportunity to see what your child has been learning during dance class. Dates will be announced by the instructor, and are usually the last day of a quarter.

May I take video or photos during class?

Please do not take video or photos during a class. If you would like to record what your child learned that day, please take a video of your own child directly after the class ends. On Family/Friend days, which are usually on the last day of the quarter, photos and video may be taken for a portion or all of the class depending on the instructor; please ask the instructor first, though, as sometimes the instructor does not want his/her classes recorded.

Will there be a dance recital?

There will not be a dance recital. We would have to devote a large portion of class time to learning and rehearsing dances for a recital. We feel that the time spent in dance class is best used learning new dance skills and concepts. Instead of a recital we invite you to join us for a Family/Friend dance class. This is an opportunity for your child to show you what they have learned in their dance class.

What will my child learn during dance class?

Please see our website (www.cdt-dance.org) or brochures for current class descriptions.
